Drop in between 10am-12 noon.

Drop in to see the developments at Sgoil Chàirinis. Find out how you and your family – children welcome – can contribute to its future. Enjoy the Gaelic language in beginner taster sessions or join in Gaelic conversations. Light refreshments available.

All sessions FREE. Donations welcome

Heritage Walks

Join us on our weekly Wednesday walks exploring North Uist's landscape, archaeology and history.

Walk 1

Sgrìob gu Teampull na Trionaid Wednesday 19 July, 2–3.30pm

Join us to visit Teampull na Trionaid, in English known as Trinity Temple, a ruined 13th-century seminary, with connections to Iona Abbey at Carinish, North Uist. Meet: Old Church car park

Walk 3

Sgrìob gu Clach an t-Sagairt, Druim na Croise and the site of St Columba's Church Wednesday 2 August, 2–3.30pm

This walk will guide you from the site of St Columba's Church to Clach an t-Sagairt the site of St Columba's Church and Druim na Croise. An extension to St Columba's Well may be available, weather permitting.

Meet: On the grass beside the new Clachan Sands cemetery

CEUT has risk assessed the walks. Some terrain will be uneven and possibly boggy. Anyone joining the walks does so at their own risk. You will require stout footwear and if you use walking poles, we suggest you bring them. Rainproof clothing is advised. Please bring your own water, snacks, sun/midge protection. Visit www.ceut.scot or email ceutevents@gmail.com for further details of each walk.

Walk 2

Sgrìob gu Dùn an Sticir Wednesday 26 July, 2–3pm

This walk will explore the tidal Loch an Sticir and its three islands connected by artificial causeways. The eastern island features the remains of an Iron Age broch, built over in the 16th-century by a medieval hall, the home of the infamous Hugh MacDonald of Sleat.

Meet: At the end of the road to Port nan Long, by the ruined crofts

Walk 4

Sgrìob gu Barpa Langais agus Pobull Fhinn Wednesday 9 August, 2–4pm

This walk will begin by walking up to Barpa Langais, the best preserved Neolithic chambered cairn in the Outer Hebrides. We will climb to the trig point on Ben Langais above Pubull Fhinn and walk down to this stone circle erected around 2000BC. This walk offers spectacular views of Loch Langais and Loch Euphort. Meet: Barp car park

DIGITAL FÈIS 2

Friday 11 – Saturday 12 August
Sgoil Chàirinis

Join us for Digital Fèis finale and get involved in shaping the recording of important places, culture and Gaelic heritage of the island.
